SECOND PRESENTERIAN CHURCH, NASHvilla.- In accordance with the Special Order of Col. MILLER, appropriating the Second Presbyterian Church a Post Chapel under the direction and control of the loyal members, all officers and soldiers of the United States, all strangers. who may happen to be in the city, as well as the citizens of Nashville, are cordially invited to attend Divine service at said Church.

Preaching this morning at 10% o'clock, A. M., by Rev. GRANVILLE MODY, Colonel Seventy-fourth Ohio Volunteers,

We have a large quantity of old newspapers, suitable for wrapping paper, which we will dispose of at 40 cfs. per hundred.

All subscribers in arrears to the Nushwills Dam'y Union are respectfully requested to pay the Route Agent, or call and settle at the office, or their paper will be discontinued.

Particular Notice.

Mr. C. D. WHITING has assumed the control of our city subscription list. He will see that the Union is delivered regularly to city subscribers every morning. He will also make collections promptly, at least every two weeks. No money taken but Tennessee, or par funds.

Isn't the attempt of Brand, BUCKNER, and SMITH to subjugate the Union men of Kentucky an admirable commentary on the affected horror which the rebels express at the idea of subjugating the South?

A CONSEQUENTIAL DARKEY .- The Aleminer has a story of a secession Presbyterian minister in one of the Border States, who took occasion one Subbath morning publicly to inform the Lord of one of his prominent church members who had "gone to the enemy, even to the Congress of the United States," and he therefore entreated his Divine Master that his traitorous footsteps might never again press the soil of his State. A lady, heard the prayer, had a colored preacher in her family, who was a most devoted and godly man. She said to him, upon returning from church, "Uncle Robin, our preacher prayed this morning that Mr. — might never come back home again." The old man looked confounded, as he exclaimed, "Well, well, is it possible?" After a moment of serious thought, he said, earnestly, "Well. madam, I shall feel chloquet to pray agin him." It was thought by those who knew the parties, that the minister's prayer would not weigh much while Uncle Robin prayed "agin him."

In justice to Mr. Haumros, we publish keep both parties advised of the true the following reply to some statements in yesterday's Union:

Second Presbyterian Church.

To the Editor of the Union: In your notice of the "Second Presbyterian Church" in yesterday's Usros, the following passage occurs, to wit:

"Mr. HAMILTON, clerk of the church when called on to hand over the church records to Elder Dickey, a loyal man, re-Inetantly delivered an unimportant book -but said he knew nothing about the other reronds." "It is charged also that the book given up has been mutilated, a porion of the vecord being torn out."

This passage would do me great injustice were the facts as they really exist not set forth before the public.

The book alluded to was delivered to the Hon. Jao. S. Bates in accordance with a military order issued by Gen. Rocsagau while he was commanding this post. It is a true and complete copy of the 3d volume of the minutes of the session of the Second Presbyterian Church up to the time the copy was made. The charge, that said book has been untilated, by a portion of the record being tora out is without the shadow of foundation in truth, as may be seen by omparing the copy with the original.

The statement that I said that I "knee thing about the other records," is grossly false. The records of the Session have burg, on the Mississippi River, in the been in my possession ever since I have had the honor to hold the office of Clerk of Session, which has been for many years. By the Constitution of the Church the Clerk of Session is the only person authorised to keep the records of the Church; and up to the time they were ordered out of my hands by the military authorities, I have endeavored to perform that duty in the fear of Gon and in accordance with my obligations to the Church. The records will speak for themselves; they have been kept in accordance with the established usages of the Church, and received annually the approval of Presbytery.

Agreement for an Exchange of Prisoners.

HANALL'S LANDING, ON JAMES ROYER Val., 1 July 22, 1862.

The undersigned having been commissioned by the authorities, they respectively represent, to make arrangements for a general exchange of prisoners of war, have agreed to the following ARTICLE 1. It is hereby agreed and stipulated that all prisoners of war held by either party, including those taken on private or armed vessels, known as privateers, shall be discharged upon the conditions and terms following

Prisoners to be exchanged man for man, and officer for officer; privates to "I want a safe guard," said a violent | be placed upon the footing of officers and men of the navy.

Men and officers of lower grades may be exchanged for offices of higher grade, and men and officers of different services may be exchanged according to the following scale of equivalents ; A general commander-in-chief or an admiral, shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank, or forty-six privates or common seamen.

A flag officer or major general shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank or, forty privates or common seamen. A commodore carrying a broad pennant, or a brigadier general, shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank, or twenty privates or common seamen.

A captain in the navy, or a colonel, shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank, or for fifteen privates or common weamen. Alientenant colonel or a commander in the navy shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank, or for ten privates or common seamen. A lieutenant commander or a major shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank or eight privates or common seamen

A lientenant or a master in the navy or a captain in the army or marines, shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank, or six privates or common seamen. Master's mates in the navy, or lieuten ants and ensigns of the army, shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank, or our privates or common seamen. Midshipmen, warrant officers in the navy masters of merchant vessels and com-manders or privates, shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank, or three privates or common seamen: Second-Captains, lieutenant or mates of merchant vessels or privates, and all petty officers in the which takes the reason practice navy, and all non-commissioned officers though we admit that it has excited us in the army or marines shall be severally exchanged for persons of equal rank, or for two privates or common seaman ; and private soldiers and common seamen shall be exchanged for each other, man for man. Article 3. Local, State, civil and militia rank held by persons not in actual military service, will not be recognized, the basis of exchange being the grade actually held in the naval and military services of the respective parties.

Article 3. If citizens held by either party on charge of disloyalty or any alleged civil offense am exchanged, it shall only be for citizens, captured sut lers, teamsters, and all civilians in the actual service of either party, to be exchanged for persons in similar position.

Article 4. All prisoners of war to be discharged on parole in ten days after their capture, and the prisoners now held and those to be hereafter taken to be transported to the points mutually agreed upon at the expense of the capturing party. The surplus prisoners not exchanged shall not be permitted to take up arms again, nor to serve as military olice or constabulary force in any fort garrison, or field-work, held by either of the respective parties, nor as guards of prisoners, depots or stores, nor to discharge any duty usually performed by soldiers, until exchanged under the provisions of this cartel. The exchange is not to be considered complete until the officer or soldier exchanged for has been actually reafored to the lines to which he

Article 5. Each party, upon the dis-charge of prisoners of the other party, is authorised to discharge an equal number of their own officers or men from parole, furnishing at the same time to the other party a list of their prisoners discharged and of their own officers and men relieved from parole, enabling each party to relieve from parole such of their own officers and men as the party may choose.

condition of the exchange of prisoners.

Article 6. The stipulations and provisions above mentioned to be of binding obligation during the continuance of the war, it matters not which party may have the surplus of prisoners, the great principle involved being:

1. An equitable exchange of prisoners, man fer man, officer for officer, or officers of higher grade exchanged for officers of lower grade, or for privates, according to the scale of equivalents.

That privates and officers and men of different services, may be exchanged according to the same rule of equivalent. 3. That all prisoners of whatsoever arm of service, are to be exchanged or paroled in ten days from the time of their capture, if it be practicable to transfer them to their own lines in that time; if not, as soon thereafter as practicable.

4. That no officer, soldier or employee in the service of either party is to be considered as exchanged and absolved from his parole until his equivalent has actually reached the line of his friends. 5. That the parole forbids the performance of field, garrison, police, or guard or constabulary duty. (Signed) Jony & Drz, Major-General.

SUPPLEMENTARY ARTICLES. Article 7. All prisoners of war now held on either side, and prisoners hereafter taken, shall be sent with all reasonadespatch to A. H. Aikens, below Dutch Gap, on the James River, or to Vicks-State of Mississippi, and there exchanged, or paroled until such exchange can be effected, notice being previously given by each party of the number of prisoners will send, and the time when they will be delivered at those points respectively; and in case the vicissitudes of war shall change the military relations of the places designated in this article, to the contending parties, so as to render the same inconvenient for the delivery and exchange of prisoners, other places bearing as nearly as may be the present local relations of said places to the lines of said parties, shall be by mutual agreement, substituted.

But nothing in this article contained shall prevent the commanders of two opposing armies from exchanging prisoners or releasing them on parole at other points mutually agreed on by said commanders Article 8. For the purpose of carrying into effect the foregoing articles of agreement, each party will appoint two agents, to be called agents for the exchange of prisoners of war, whose duty it will be to communicate with each other, by correspondence and otherwise, to prepare the list of prisoners, to attend to the de livery of prisoners at the places agreed on, and to carry out promptly, effectually and in good faith, all the details and provisions of the said articles of agree-

Article 9. And in case any misunderstanding shall arise in regard to any clause or stipulation in the aforesaid articles, it is mutually agreed that such isunderstanding shall not interrupt the release of prisoners on parole, as herein provided, but shall be made the subject of friendly explanations, in order that the object of this agreement may neither se defeated a Trade and Travel of the Season.

A NOTABLE EXHIBIT.

-From the New York Times, Bab. The railway traffic and canal trade of the present summer menths continues to attract notice from the very large and almost uniform increase which they exhibit over the active business of last season. We have already referred to the prospect of nearly $2,000,000 increase before the close of navigation on the tolls of the New York State canals, affording a gross income of five or five and a half millions of dollars. We have now the July returns of traffic over eighteen of the New York and Western railway lines, which show an average increase over last year of forty-law per cent. Since these returns were made up, various weekly reports of the first week's business over the western lines have been eceived, indicating a large gain for the nonth, although the labor of the great harvest in the West and the scarcity of laborers have caused some delay in sendng forward the old supplies of grain .-The summer passenger travel over the New York lines, both in July and August, has materially improved over the last season, while the pressure of the freight business, particularly from the West, and some increase in the price of labor employed on the roads, have induced a further advance in the rates of charges. The following table of July returns is compiled for reference, with the gain of each line over July of last

How to Dispose of a Husband. We heard of a woman, the other day, who was quite happy over the clever manner in which she had disposed of her husband. By coaxing, she induced him to volunteer in one of our city companies, and pecketed the $200 bounty, but after remaining in barracks two or three days, he thought it but fair that she should allow him to belp her spend the money. So he took "leave of absence," and made known his wishes to her, but her sentimental days were over, and instead of according to his request she slipped out of the house, procured an filter and caused his arrest for desertion. Patriotism, however, had little to do with her action, if we may judge from her own explanation. "You see," said she, John is no good to me or anybody else; I've tried to make something of him, but it's no use; so let him go for a soldier He's a lasy good-for-nothing fellow; and never had half enough spirit for a husband, whatever he may have fer soldering I don't want him to get shot, but if he The lists thus mutually furnished will should I won't be any worse off.
